
JANUARY through DECEMBER—Issues 01-12 Year 09

- p3. SAVING HUGH HENDRY: How the Coming Bear Market in Global Sovereign Debt Will Drive Capital Back into Real Assets
- p10. BLACK SWANS AND PETROSTATES: How the Global Financial Crisis Has Created Unexpected Risk in Global Oil Producers
- p21. SAGA NORTH AMERICA: How The North American Oil Crisis Will Force Ottawa, Washington, and Mexico City to Confront One Another As Never Before
- p32. OIL'S NEW TOPOGRAPHIES: How The Global Financial Crisis is Serving to Hasten Big Changes in the Use of Oil, Between the Developed and the Developing World
- p41. THE PRICE OF OIL: Why the Price of Oil Will Eventually Break into Two, More Distinct Categories: The Present Price, and the Future Price
- p51. THE SCHOLARSHIP OF COLLAPSE: We Don't View the End of the British Empire as a Human Tragedy. There is Little Reason therefore to View the Decline of the United States any Differently. Though, it is Indeed Sad and Regrettable
- p65. THE BURDEN OF TRANSITION: The Global Economic Crisis Has Provided Yet One More Proof to Peak Oil. The Question Now: How Shall We Transition to Power Grid 2.0?
- p78. FALL FORECAST: Reflation Has Arrived: Friend or Foe?
- p93. LEARNING FROM LAGOS: How Certain Oil Actors Performed Unintentional Stress Tests from the Margins of the Very Large Global Oil System, and Taught the World that a New Era of Oil Had Arrived
- p106. SOLVE FOR CALIFORNIA: The United States Faces Twin Problems with its Economy, and its Energy Supply. The Predicament is Best Articulated in the Challenges Facing its Largest State. Thus, to Fix the United States we Should Address Systemic Transition in California
- p118. COAL WORLD: Will Energy Transition Deliver Us to a World of Green Energy, or Return us to a World of Coal?
- p134. COPENHAGEN CONFIRMATION: The Climate Change Movement Has Performed a Helpful Social Reality Test, Meaningful to the Problem of Energy Transition